WHEN IT COMES TO TASTE, THERE ARE NO FRONTIERS

Daily Delight began its foreign operations in the USA with the export of spices and masalas in the 1990s. And in a span of over 35 years, the company has established itself an internationally popular food brand. Today, it has a strong presence, not only in the USA but in Europe and other countries as well.

The high points of Daily Delight products are quality exceeding international standards and an absolute commitment to natural flavor and aroma, bringing traditional Indian cuisine right to your dining table. The Research and Development team puts together more and more traditional items onto the plate hitherto not made at homes often. This keeps our traditional cuisine alive in the lives of the younger generation.

Daily Delight with its wide range of frozen prepared ready-to-eat foods, Individual Quick Frozen vegetables, Flours, Snacks, Sweets and Desserts continues its mission of expanding its line of products to bring more ethnically diverse products to consumers around the world, evoking nostalgia about one's roots, one's homeland and its food.

WHEN IT COMES TO VISION, THERE ARE NO BARRIERS

Founder of Parayil Group, Late Mr. P. J. Mathew, envisioned that quality food which is both tasty and healthy, will always be welcomed anywhere in the world. So he pioneered a new path in the food industry by creating a food brand that was unique: Daily Delight.

Unique because it was for the first time that food products, perfected from traditional recipes and modern technologies was made available to the public.

VISION To give the world the taste of authentic Indian food while at the same time bringing international standards of quality to the food industry in India.

MISSION To set the highest standards of quality and authenticity while at the same time preserving the taste, health, and variety of traditional Indian food and making them available the world over.

WHEN IT COMES TO INFRASTRUCTURE, THERE ARE NO SUBSTITUTES

With six state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities across India and USA - Narianganam, Plassanal, Aroor, Pollachi, Coimbatore and New Jersey, Daily Delight takes pride in the infrastructural prowess it has built over decades, supported by advanced processing capabilities and world - class packaging standards. We have the technology to make sure that all products are prepared under strict hygiene conditions. We are in the process of introducing more and more automation in our processing.

WHEN IT COMES TO QUALITY, THERE ARE NO COMPROMISES

At Daily Delight, quality is not a process - it is our culture. Trusted across international markets, Daily Delight delivers products that comply effortlessly with USA, EU, and other international food safety regulations, making us a dependable partner for global brands and retailers.

We believe that exceptional food begins with rigorous standards. From raw material selection to final dispatch, each step is governed by globally recognized quality systems, ensuring products that are safe, authentic, and reliable.

Our state of the art facilities are BRC & FSSC 22000 certified, FDA Approved and EU Compliant. Full-fledged laboratories manned by qualified experts, work round the clock to ensure that only products with the highest quality reach you.
